Pastor's Reflections
May 28
Pentecost Sunday

The story of the tower of Babel tells how humanity grew into such a vastly diverse population. Driven to scatter over all the earth, because they could no longer understand each other, humanity developed not only a diversity of languages, but a diversity of geographies, ethnicities, and cultures.

Prophets like Ezekiel and Joel came to realize that despite this rich diversity, something important was missing. Up to that time God had always been remote, approachable only by a certain few like Abraham and Moses. God's Spirit had not yet been poured out among all.

On the eve of Pentecost, we imagine the world before the Holy Spirit, came down, a world, still groaning in labor, a world, awaiting Jesus's gift of the Spirit, who would dwell within all who believe in him. In the Spirit, that diversity across cultures and colors countries and customs, would be united, as water flowing down a mountain is when it joins together in the sea.

The Holy Spirit is here with us now, given to us in baptism, bringing us together, every Sunday, flowing out through the entire world. May we always be conscious of the movement of the Spirit in our lives, bringing together as one, all who have been scattered.

How do you recognize the Holy Spirit working to unite us?

Father Stephen

Reflexiones del Párroco
28 de Mayo
Domingo de Pentecostes

La historia de la torre de Babel cuenta cómo la humanidad se convirtió en una población tan diversa. Impulsada a dispersarse por toda la tierra, porque ya no podían entenderse entre sí, la humanidad desarrolló no solo una diversidad de idiomas, sino una diversidad de geografías, etnias y culturas.

Profetas como Ezequiel y Joel se dieron cuenta de que, a pesar de esta rica diversidad, faltaba algo importante. Hasta ese momento, Dios siempre había sido remoto, accesible solo por unos pocos como Abraham y Moisés. El Espíritu de Dios aún no había sido derramado entre todos.

En la víspera de Pentecostés, imaginamos el mundo antes de que el Espíritu Santo descendiera, un mundo, todavía gimiendo en el trabajo, un mundo, esperando el don del Espíritu de Jesús, que moraría dentro de todos los que creen en él. En el Espíritu, esa diversidad entre culturas y colores, países y costumbres, estaría unida, como el agua que fluye por una montaña cuando se une en el mar.

El Espíritu Santo está aquí con nosotros ahora, dado a nosotros en el bautismo, reuniéndonos, cada Domingo, fluyendo por todo el mundo. Que siempre seamos conscientes del movimiento del Espíritu en nuestras vidas, reuniendo como uno solo, a todos los que han sido dispersados.

¿Cómo reconoces al Espíritu Santo trabajando para unirnos?

Padre Esteban

THE IMPORTANCE OF FAITH FORMATION

- We learn the faith Knowledge of the faith is key to conversion and ongoing discipleship. Being a disciple is a way of life that includes both the heart and the mind. Sacred Scripture and Catholic Tradition inform our understanding of faith.
- We celebrate the faith Faith is a relationship. It is how we relate to God. Our relationship with God is something we not only think about, but also celebrate. At Mass we celebrate our faith together. We pray, hear God's Word, and receive his grace through the Eucharist and we are nourished and renewed.
- We choose the faith We choose our faith when we follow the Ten Commandments. Life as a disciple includes a moral life. To follow God's will, we have to make daily choices for or against God. When we choose to follow God the Father, we become more like his Son, Jesus.
- We pray the faith Prayer is our lifeline. When we pray, we connect with God, the Communion of the Saints, and each other. Prayer is a language of faith. It gives expression to our heart's desires, hopes, fears, and anxieties. Learning to pray includes understanding the different forms and methods of prayer.
- Share the faith All who are baptized are called to be disciples. Christ sent his disciples out to share the good news. We share the gospel message when we offer a witness of faith and life that is consistent with Jesus as he is presented in the Gospels.
- Live the faith We are baptized into a faith community. Our faith is nurtured by the witness of faith the community provides. To be a disciple is to be a person who lives in community with others. Community is the structure of the Church and the context in which believers receive God's grace, grow in faith, and share their gifts with others.

Registration forms and calendars are available on the Faith Formation Table.
